

Dependability as promised.

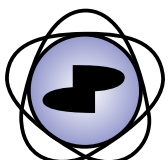

15-YEAR WINNING STREAK

Our record is undisputed.

At Downhole Products, failure is not an option because we know you need the right well completion equipment to get the job done the first time. We're committed to providing better tools that deliver premium performance and unparalleled reliability. With virtually no product failures in the past 15 years, our track record speaks for itself. Our Zero Fail Commitment means we will not tolerate failure – and neither should you. Ensure successful well completion every time by going with a proven winner.
